TWO MEN ARE KILLED; MANY SUSPECTS TAKEN

I. W. W. LEADER SHOOTS OFFICER

PITTSBURGH, June 3—City Detective Jacob Eisler was shot and slightly wounded during a raid by a squad of detectives I. W. W. headquarters here shortly after noon today. John Johnson, 35, alleged to be the President of the local I. W. W. organization, is held at Central Police station charged with the shooting. When Detective Eisler opened the door of the I. W. W. office in the Apollo building Johnson is alleged to have fired with an automatic revolver. Eisler crossed the room and grappled with his assailant in a terrific struggle and overpowered him with the aid of other officers.

Johnson was taken to headquarters. His office records and a quantity of literature was confiscated, the police say. Ike Zelesko who was also in the room was arrested. Johnson, according to the police is known internationally as an I. W. W. organizer and a radical agitator.

In what may have been a wide spread plot, ten bombs were set off in eight cities between 11 o'clock last night and 1 o'clock this morning. Two were killed—a special policeman in New York, and an unidentified man in Washington. Anarchistic literature was discovered near the scenes of the explosions in Washington, Pittsburgh and Roxbury. Two men were arrested in Philadelphia. The police did not make known their names. In some instances police say the infernal machines apparently were loaded with shrapnel.

Chief of Police Cochran of the New York district said today he did not know enough of the outrages to determine whether they were the work of the gang that sent out the bombs through the mail addressed to prominent men on May day. It was believed that while the assassination of public men or their employee might have been intended the bombs in some instances were planted at the wrong houses.

PITTSBURGH, June 3—With seven suspects under arrest the police and agents of the Department of Justice are continuing today to tighten the drag net around the anarchists who last night exploded two heavily charged bombs here wrecking six residences. All of the suspects are aliens and are well known radical agitators of the Pittsburgh district. Acting Chief of Detectives Homer Crooks said today that the blast was probably the work of outside talent employed especially for the purpose. He was of the opinion, however, that the placing of the bombs was under the direction of local radicals. Anarchistic papers found at the scene of the bombing indicated a nation wide assassination plan. Although the blast was violent no one was injured.

PITTSBURGH, June 3—Wholesale round up of suspected Russians I. W. W. sympathizers and suspected Bolsheviki agents was in full swing here today following the wrecking of six residences by bomb terrorists. Sixteen suspects mostly Russian Poles have been arrested by the authorities. Many others will be apprehended.

WASHINGTON, June 3—Secret service agents throughout the country today were hunting the anarchist ring believed responsible for the bold attempt upon the life of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer here last night and an effort to kill prominent persons elsewhere in the United States. The blast blew out the front of the Palmer home and shattered windows furniture and bric-a-brac in Washington's most fashionable resident district. The only clew the police have is the fragments of the man's body believed to have planted the bomb and blown to pieces in the attempt. That it may be the same gang that planned the May day demonstration by mailing bombs on April 29, which were found in the New York postoffice after one had been delivered and exploded in the home of former Senator Hardiman of Georgia, was the belief of authorities here.

Working on this theory every precaution was being taken to guard the homes of those men who were marked for death in the May day plans. These included Secretary of Labor Wilson, Commissioner General of Immigration Caminetti and Postmaster General Burleson. Police and soldiers have been thrown about the homes of officials who have been threatened.

ATTORNEY GENERAL PALMER'S RESIDENCE WRECKED BY BOMB

..WASHINGTON, June 2—The home of A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general of the United States, was badly damaged and one man was killed when a bomb placed in a suitcase exploded tonight in the Palmer home.

With a roar that was heard for a block, the bomb exploded and killed a servant. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer were not at home at the time, having spent the evening at one of the theatres.

The police were notified and a cordon of detectives was thrown around the house. So far no one has been arrested.

Ever since the attempt failed on the lives of a number of prominent men, in public life, close watch has been kept on the Palmer home and all packages postmarked for the attorney general or his family have been carefully examined. At this writing it is not known if one of the servants received the suitcase or it had been left on the porch step. The police are of the opinion that some one knew that the Palmers would be at the theatre tonight since the bomb was timed for about one hour after the attorney general would return home. Fortunately, the show was rather prolonged and Mr. and Mrs. Palmer were down town when the explosion occurred.

THIRD WARD TEAM DOWNS Y. M. C. A.

Last evenings Twilight League game between the Y. M. C. A. and Third Ward teams was sure some humdinger and was greatly enjoyed by a large audience of rabid rooters.

It was a seven-inning session but furnished thrills sufficient for a real sure-enough nine inning battle.

Woodle did the twirling for Third Ward and he was entire master of the situation allowing the "Young Christians" but four scattered hits.

Walker also pitched a fine game for the "Y".

GIRARD TOWNSHIP TRAVELER WAILS

Girard Township, May 31, 1919.
Editor Progress:

Girard township people are attempting to lay claim to the unenviable title of having the bummest roads in Clearfield county and desire to qualify their claims by stating that "Jimalash," the big three supervisors, or at least the biggest of the three, positively refuses to travel the roads of his own township, but when he has any traveling to do beats it across country into another township, just as quickly as possible.

We are going to petition the Clearfield county courts for an order compelling "Jimalash," or at least 'Jim' to do some traveling over the roads supposed to be in his care, in the hope that we may be able to jolt a little road work out of his hide.

"Jimalash" ought to at least be compelled to fix the roads to the election house where those signboards are safely stored away for the benefit of strangers traveling through our country, who, when they come to a cross roads, must perforce journey to the election house, unpack the signboards and figure out for themselves the direction they seek.

Mr. Editor, please give this wail space in your paper, in the hope that the Clearfield County Good Roads Association might see it and lend their aid to get "Jimalash" sentenced to travel our roads now.

Yours truly,
A LONG SUFFERER.

CLEARFIELD WEDDING TO BE ANNULLED

Making the discovery that his wife to whom he was married but a short while ago was still legally bound in wedlock to another man who prior to the second wedding had been erroneously reported killed with the American army in France is the somewhat unusual circumstances in which Clyde Baughman, a resident of Blair county now finds himself.

As a result steps have been taken looking toward a divorce and in common pleas court in Hollidaysburg Monday morning a subpoena was awarded returnable the first Monday in July, Baughman being the libellant and his wife, respondent, in the action.

Baughman and his bride were united in marriage January 14, 1919 at Clearfield and lived together as man and wife until February 1 when it was discovered by the libellant, Mr Baughman, that his wife had been lawfully joined in marriage with John Cornell who was before the time of the wife's last marriage, a soldier in France and prior to the ceremony had been reported killed. This notice from the war department, however, proved to be an error and since that time Cornell has been returned to the United States and is now very much alive at Lloydell Cambria county.

Both Baughman and his wife, during their short period of wedded life resided at Tyrone but at the present time the exact location of Mrs Baughman is unknown. She was married to Cornell about four years ago.

PENNSY CONDUCTORS STUDY CARPENTERING

Pasengers on the Tyrone branch of the Pennsy may look for more comforts in and about those musty old ill-smelling wooden passenger coaches, Supt. Johnson is inflicting upon us in his regard for the safety of the life and limb of the average New York traveler.

The wily superintendent has evolved a new scheme to tide things over It is said he has started a school in ground and lofty carpentering and joining, for the purpose of equipping his conductors to make necessary repairs at the many times needed during each trip.

On account of the proficiency already shown and by reason of his ancestral qualifications already mentioned, Conductor Farrell was selceted for the first student in the new school He has been given four days absence from his regular run this week and when he returns to duty Saturo next will be well qualified to hit the nail on the head with either hand.

Meanwhile the nondescript old rolling stock creak jerkily over the mountains. But their passenger traffic in New York State must be made safe regardless of Pennsylvanians.

QUICK DRASTIC ACTION NECESSARY

The bombing of the residence of Attorney General Palmer in Washington with the bomb outrages in Pittsburgh last night would make it appear that red-handed Anarchy has begun its campaign to intimidate American authorities and destroy American institutions. This outbreak has long been threatened and is evidently a follow up of the mail bombs attempt.

These cowardly attacks demonstrate that the peril of Bolshevism is menacing right here in free America and require the most drastic action be taken to stamp out this criminal and unlimited authority. Every principal taken into custody, every red-mouthed agitator should be summarily dealt with in such a manner that these rattle-brained fools who seem to think American liberty means license to destroy lives, may find this country entirely too hot for their kind of health.

AMERICAN NAVY ALWAYS FIRST

The American navy has just reason to be proud over the record established by Commander A. C. Reed and his now famous NC-4 flying boat in flying across the Atlantic. The perfection with which the trip was planned with infinite care and its successful accomplishment is an added tribute to Yankee brains, skill and courage. It is fitting that the nation which was first to fly and first to fly by the first to surmount the hitherto believed to be impossible task across the broad Atlantic.

The most marked and impressive fact proved by the NC-4 is that airplanes can travel great distances at an average speed of [illegible] miles an hour. Fighting planes have flown nearly [illegible] still, it is an achievement in travel to have gone [illegible] in two days nine and a quarter hours. An actual [illegible] of 2,476 miles was negotiated at a speed that would carry a traveler across this continent in one day.

The seaplanes have demonstrated what must be insisted upon as paramount; that they could descend on the water in safety at sea without sacrifice of life. The Navy department has given no chance of disaster to personnel. The world—[illegible] a wide sneer, and that promptly apologized for and withdrawn—has approved.

That the ocean crossing will be made by airplane in a single flight is now confidently expected as any future event can be. That it will be made by dirigible balloon is as certain. It will [illegible] no one now if both feats shall be accomplished within the present season. There is much still to do and to learn before [illegible] can make their stated flights with passengers and [illegible] NC-4 settled to her anchorage in Plymouth [illegible] chapter of air history was written to the glorious end.

MODERN STUCCO STYLE OF HOME

Attractive Exterior With Unique Interior Arrangement.

SUITABLE FOR SMALL FAMILY

Design Calls for Six Rooms, but They Are What Might Be Termed "Regular" Rooms—Good Time to Build.

Mr. William A. Radford will answer questions and give advice FREE OF COST on all subjects pertaining to the subject of building, for the readers of this paper. On account of his wide experience as Editor, Author and Manufacturer, he is, without doubt, the highest authority on all these subjects. Address all inquiries to William A. Radford, No. 1827 Prairie avenue, Chicago, Ill., and only enclose three-cent stamp for reply.

Some one had advanced the argument that if every family in the country willed it, there would be few that did not live in their own homes. With few exceptions, tenants pay more in rent than it would cost them to buy the places in which they live. The owner of rented property must get as large a return on his investment as the same money would earn in interest, plus a profit to pay him for his labor and the cost of caring for the property. This expense is borne by the person who rents the property.

This line of reasoning is logical, but the one thing that deters most people from buying or building a home is a lack of desire to assume the responsibility of paying for it. When it is considered that a house may be purchased by paying down a small portion of the cost and the balance as rent, there is not so much responsibility as most people believe.

Everywhere in the country now there is a shortage of available homes. In almost every community this condition prevails and those who are paying rent are finding that the demand is causing the property owners to charge more and more for the houses they own. Thus, whether they will it or not, many people have been driven by necessity into building homes for themselves, while others are considering doing so.

Selecting a design for a house is undoubtedly the most important istep in securing a home. Care should be exercised in picking the room arrangement, the materials of which the house is constructed and the design for the exterior. The number and arrangement of the rooms is influenced by the needs of the family and individual ideas of what a home should be. Selecting materials, however, is a matter that should be carefully weighed. Cheap materials for a home are more costly than good materials, for the simple reason that there will be a constant outlay for repairs if poor stuff is used. The exterior appearance, like the room arrangement, is a matter of taste.

For the person who likes stucco, or plaster exteriors, the house shown in the accompanying illustration will be favored. Here is a modern city style house that is unusually attractive. While the house itself is rectangular in shape, the dimensions being 24 by 30 feet 6 inches, the broad porch gives it a fine appearance. The porch is 15 by 6 feet, but the overhanging roof makes it appear much larger.

The design for this house calls for only six rooms, but they are what might be termed "regular" rooms. The living room extends the full breadth of the house, being 23 by 13 feet. The entrance is in the center, while at one end are the stairs leading to the second floor. The fireplace is built into the interior wall and has a right angle seat on one side. The dining room is reached through glazed doors at the right of the fire place. This is 12 by 16 feet, the buffet and two wall cases being built into one end. The kitchen, occupying the other corner of the building is also large, 10 feet 6 inches, by 12 feet 6 inches. The work table is underneath the double windows on the side, while there are cases on either side of it. The rear porch is of the same width as the kitchen and a place is provided for icing the ice box without entering the kitchen.

The second floor plan is similar to the first. The front bedroom is of the same size as the living room, extending the width of the house. Adjoining it, at the end of a central hall, is the bath room, while there are two other bedrooms, one on each of the two rear corners. Closets are placed in each of these rooms.

The basement extends under the whole of the house. Here rooms may be built to keep the heating plant separate from the other parts of the basement, which always is a good plan as it keeps the heat from the family food storage room.

This is an exceptionally fine design for a house of this kind and size and those who build according to it will have homes to be proud of.

There is every reason why those who have been considering building a home should do so now. The government is urging that all building be started at once so as to give the returning soldiers employment. Converting the industries that were transformed into munitions factories during the war into their peace time state also has thrown many persons temporarily out of employment and building is looked to to keep these workers busy.

When it is considered that more than 80 per cent of the cost of a home is labor, it can readily be understood why building cannot be done now so cheaply as a few years ago. Nature furnishes the materials that go into a building, while labor fashions them into the required shape and condition. Just so long as the present wage level is maintained, so will the cost of building materials stay up. At that they are only 37 per cent more now than in 1913, when they reached a low level.

There is one thing that every person who intends building should do if possible. That is to consult an architect. These men are trained by education and experience to get the most for the money spent in building. The small fee the architect charges is saved many times over in practically every building, because the architect knows how it should be erected. Regarding materials, the lumber dealer is a good man to consult.

PROCLAMATION OF THE BURGESS

Clearfield people generally seem to lose sight of the fact, that the Boro Ordinances forbid the throwing of ashes, lawn clippings and rubbish of any kind upon the streets and alleys of the borough, and in accordance with this lapse, the street employes are given a lot of additional work, while the appearance of the town suffers greatly therefrom.

Therefore, all persons are once more notified to desist from this practice.

Hereafter in every case reported to the Burgess, where citizens have thrown ashes, lawn clippings, sweepings or other rubbish on public streets or alleys of the borough, prosecution will be brought and the ffender made to pay the penalty prescribed by the Ordinances.

The Highway Department is making an effort to put the dirt streets in proper shape, and this rubbish not only looks unsightly, but being loose washes into the inlets and clogs same with the first dash of rain, thereby causing overflow and damage to property.

Citizens generally will please obey this proclamation and thus avoid the unpleasantness of an arrest for violation of the ordinances.

ANNOUNCES FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

The announcement of James F. Dunn, of DuBois, for the Democratic nomination for the office of County Commissioner, will be found in this issue of The Progress. Mr. Dunn has long been a faithful party worker.

There is an old joke that the three best ways to spread news rapidly is by telegraph, telephone and telling a woman, but the war has shown that women can keep secrets even better than men. Perhaps the American woman who had in her possession the most vital secrets was Miss O'Neill of the British and Allied Transport Service at New York. She knew in advance the dates of sailing of every transport, the number of men on board, and what route the transports would follow. That information given to German agents in America might have prolonged the war for another year or so, but needless to say it never got past Miss O'Neill.

All of these lines are temporarily in government possession and operation.

The parent company owns directly 2,995.77 miles of line, all of which lies in the state of Pennsylvania, and constitutes the highest mileage in the name of any one corporation of the system. The remainder of the mileage both within and without the state of Pennsylvania is owned by the subsidiaries, which are tied into the Pennsylvania system by long-term leases, guarantees of stock ownership.

The lines constituting the Pennsylvania system traverse 13 states and the istrict of Columbia, the states in question being Delaware, Illinois, Indiana Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia and W. Virginia.

PEEL OFF CORNS BETWEEN TOES

"Two Drops of 'Gets-It',—That's All"

remove corns in hard-to-get-at places. It's a liquid—a wonderful painless formula—it has never been successfully imitated. It settles on the corn, and dries immediately. Instead of digging out the corn, you peel it out painlessly. There's no sticky plaster that doesn't stay "put", no salve that irritates or rubs off. You reach the corn easily with the little glass rod in the cork of every "Gets-It" bottle. It does not hurt the true flesh. Try it, trot and smile! It's a blessing; never fails. They announce the latest styles and tell you where to go to get the most and the best for your money.

Says We Become Cranks On Hot Water Drinking

Hopes Every Man and Woman Adopts This Splendid Morning Habit.

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice inhide-bath ing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty, muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy healthy, rosy-checked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the a hes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their ter pound of limestone phosphate will turn at constipation, bilious attacks, not cost much at the drug store, but acid stomach nervous days and sleepless nights, have become real cranks ing and purifying the entire alimen- is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.

The Artist's Voice and its EDISON RE-CREATION are one!

"WHAT a privilege to be a close friend of a Grand Opera star," you've often thought. "To be able to hear that magnificent voice frequently, without the bother and formality of attending the opera."

Think again. If you spent much time in a great singer's studio, what would you hear? Hour after hour of endless vocalizing; monotonous repetition of scales and arpeggios, torturing efforts to increase the voice's compass.

No. For genuine enjoyment of a singer's voice, you must own

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

With this wonderful instrument you hear the singer at his best. Would an artist release a RE-CREATION, permanent and irrevocable measure of his talent, unless he felt certain that it represented his highest moments? He may have an "off" night at the opera but on the New Edison, the singer gives his all. You hear his voice RE-CREATED in all its fire and splendor; RE-CREATED with such fidelity that no human ear can distinguish the living voice from the instrument's rendition. More than thirty great stars of both sexes have stood beside the New Edison in public tone tests; sung in direct comparison with the instrument, then challenged their listeners to state when it was the artist they heard and when the instrument. Not one person has ever been able to detect a shade of difference between the singer's voice and the instrument.

Come in to-morrow and hear a RE-CREATION of your favorite singer's voice.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

The almost 50 returned soldiers from the World War, who took part in the Parade Memorial Day, deserve considerable praise for the manner of their fine marching and excellent deportment throughout the entire march It was easy to see that they were a body of young men well-trained.

The five helmets that were offered by the Victory Loan Committee as prizes to be awarded to the five persons selling the largest number of bonds, were awarded by drawing from bers from a box. The lucky persons being Mrs. James Humphrey, ticket 152; Roy Dougherty, ticket, 90; Jessie Irvine, ticket 169; Jasper H. O'Dell 115.

Hobart Lord, who was a member of the 110th Regiment, and landed from over-sea duty recently, was discharged in Philadelphia this week, and spent Memorial Day with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Henchberger, Thompson street.

The Rescue boys demonstrated Memorial Day that they had not forgotten how to march and win applause.

The address delivered by Rev. Father Lynch, Memorial Day, before an audience of more than three hundred people, was a masterpiece within itself and at different points as he went along was roundly applauded. In fact it was one of the most eloquent and persuasive Memorial addresses ever delivered in the town, and was chuck full of American patriotism, looking at his talk from any standpoint whatever.

To say that the three patrols of Boy Scouts deserve considerable commendation for the success of Memorial Day ceremonies is not putting it too strong. They arose at 5:15 a. m. and raised the large flag at the High School building at regulation half mast. At noontime they raised the flag at full height. From that time on the scouts were as busy as bees, assisting in arranging small details for the afternoon. They certainly do deserve a lot of credit for their energy in making the day a complete success.

Mrs. Mae Connelly, of Nanty Glo, visited her mother, Mrs. J. M. Carlisle, this week.

Lew Weber, a Pike farmer who had a leg broken in two places from a horse kick, some time ago, has recovered so far as to be able to get around on crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gearhart, of Clearfield, visited with Curwensville friends Memorial Day, as did also Mrs. Alfred Bilger of the same place.

Mrs. Ethel Kork, trained nurse, who has charge of the Leech Sanitarium, near Pittsburgh spent Memorial Day in Curwensville.

V U. Spencer and wife, and two children, all former residents here, motored over from Bellefonte Thursday and spent Memorial Day with relatives and friends. ?

Wade McDowell and wife, of Altoona, spent Memorial Day as guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orr Thompson street.

MARRIED AT WOODLAND

At 7:30 o'clock last evening, Mr. Howard G. Graham and Miss Mac Anna Luzier both of Shawsville, Pa., were united in marriage at the United Brethern Parsonage; Woodland, Pa., the pastor officiating.

The groom was dressed in his soldiers uniform and the bride was very tastefully attired in pink.

A number of children and young people who were at the church preparing for Children's Day, formed the rice brigade, and gave the newlyweds a storm of that famous article as they were entering their automobile to go on their way.

We wish them well.

Meat Injurious To The Kidneys

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

We are a nation of meat-eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the verwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stining pains in the back or the urine is cloudy full of sediment or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad alts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon uice, combined with lithia, and has been used to stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

TWO MEN ARE KILLED; MANY SUSPECTS TAKEN

I. W. W. LEADER SHOOTS OFFICER

PITTSBURGH, June 3—City Detective Jacob Eisler was shot and slightly wounded during a raid by a squad of detectives I. W. W. headquarters here shortly after noon today. John Johnson, 35, alleged to be the President of the local I. W. W. organization, is held at Central Police station charged with the shooting. When Detective Eisler opened the door of the I. W. W. office in the Apollo building Johnson is alleged to have fired with an automatic revolver. Eisler crossed the room and grappled with his assailant in a terrific struggle and overpowered him with the aid of other officers.

Johnson was taken to headquarters. His office records and a quantity of literature was confiscated, the police say. Ike Zelesko who was also in the room was arrested. Johnson, according to the police is known internationally as an I. W. W. organizer and a radical agitator.

In what may have been a wide spread plot, ten bombs were set off in eight cities between 11 o'clock last night and 1 o'clock this morning. Two were killed—a special policeman in New York, and an unidentified man in Washington. Anarchistic literature was discovered near the scenes of the explosions in Washington, Pittsburgh and Roxbury. Two men were arrested in Philadelphia. The police did not make known their names. In some instances police say the infernal machines apparently were loaded with shrapnel.

Chief of Police Cochran of the New York district said today he did not know enough of the outrages to determine whether they were the work of the gang that sent out the bombs through the mail addressed to prominent men on May day. It was believed that while the assassination of public men or their employee might have been intended the bombs in some instances were planted at the wrong houses.

PITTSBURGH, June 3—With seven suspects under arrest the police and agents of the Department of Justice are continuing today to tighten the drag net around the anarchists who last night exploded two heavily charged bombs here wrecking six residences. All of the suspects are aliens and are well known radical agitators of the Pittsburgh district. Acting Chief of Detectives Homer Crooks said today that the blast was probably the work of outside talent employed especially for the purpose. He was of the opinion, however, that the placing of the bombs was under the direction of local radicals. Anarchistic papers found at the scene of the bombing indicated a nation wide assassination plan. Although the blast was violent no one was injured.

PITTSBURGH, June 3—Wholesale round up of suspected Russians I. W. W. sympathizers and suspected Bolsheviki agents was in full swing here today following the wrecking of six residences by bomb terrorists. Sixteen suspects mostly Russian Poles have been arrested by the authorities. Many others will be apprehended.

WASHINGTON, June 3—Secret service agents throughout the country today were hunting the anarchist ring believed responsible for the bold attempt upon the life of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer here last night and an effort to kill prominent persons elsewhere in the United States. The blast blew out the front of the Palmer home and shattered windows furniture and bric-a-brac in Washington's most fashionable resident district. The only clew the police have is the fragments of the man's body believed to have planted the bomb and blown to pieces in the attempt. That it may be the same gang that planned the May day demonstration by mailing bombs on April 29, which were found in the New York postoffice after one had been delivered and exploded in the home of former Senator Hardiman of Georgia, was the belief of authorities here.

Working on this theory every precaution was being taken to guard the homes of those men who were marked for death in the May day plans. These included Secretary of Labor Wilson, Commissioner General of Immigration Caminetti and Postmaster General Burleson. Police and soldiers have been thrown about the homes of officials who have been threatened.

ATTORNEY GENERAL PALMER'S RESIDENCE WRECKED BY BOMB

..WASHINGTON, June 2—The home of A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general of the United States, was badly damaged and one man was killed when a bomb placed in a suitcase exploded tonight in the Palmer home.

With a roar that was heard for a block, the bomb exploded and killed a servant. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer were not at home at the time, having spent the evening at one of the theatres.

The police were notified and a cordon of detectives was thrown around the house. So far no one has been arrested.

Ever since the attempt failed on the lives of a number of prominent men, in public life, close watch has been kept on the Palmer home and all packages postmarked for the attorney general or his family have been carefully examined. At this writing it is not known if one of the servants received the suitcase or it had been left on the porch step. The police are of the opinion that some one knew that the Palmers would be at the theatre tonight since the bomb was timed for about one hour after the attorney general would return home. Fortunately, the show was rather prolonged and Mr. and Mrs. Palmer were down town when the explosion occurred.

THIRD WARD TEAM DOWNS Y. M. C. A.

Last evenings Twilight League game between the Y. M. C. A. and Third Ward teams was sure some humdinger and was greatly enjoyed by a large audience of rabid rooters.

It was a seven-inning session but furnished thrills sufficient for a real sure-enough nine inning battle.

Woodle did the twirling for Third Ward and he was entire master of the situation allowing the "Young Christians" but four scattered hits.

Walker also pitched a fine game for the "Y".

GIRARD TOWNSHIP TRAVELER WAILS

Girard Township, May 31, 1919.
Editor Progress:

Girard township people are attempting to lay claim to the unenviable title of having the bummest roads in Clearfield county and desire to qualify their claims by stating that "Jimalash," the big three supervisors, or at least the biggest of the three, positively refuses to travel the roads of his own township, but when he has any traveling to do beats it across country into another township, just as quickly as possible.

We are going to petition the Clearfield county courts for an order compelling "Jimalash," or at least 'Jim' to do some traveling over the roads supposed to be in his care, in the hope that we may be able to jolt a little road work out of his hide.

"Jimalash" ought to at least be compelled to fix the roads to the election house where those signboards are safely stored away for the benefit of strangers traveling through our country, who, when they come to a cross roads, must perforce journey to the election house, unpack the signboards and figure out for themselves the direction they seek.

Mr. Editor, please give this wail space in your paper, in the hope that the Clearfield County Good Roads Association might see it and lend their aid to get "Jimalash" sentenced to travel our roads now.

Yours truly,
A LONG SUFFERER.

CLEARFIELD WEDDING TO BE ANNULLED

Making the discovery that his wife to whom he was married but a short while ago was still legally bound in wedlock to another man who prior to the second wedding had been erroneously reported killed with the American army in France is the somewhat unusual circumstances in which Clyde Baughman, a resident of Blair county now finds himself.

As a result steps have been taken looking toward a divorce and in common pleas court in Hollidaysburg Monday morning a subpoena was awarded returnable the first Monday in July, Baughman being the libellant and his wife, respondent, in the action.

Baughman and his bride were united in marriage January 14, 1919 at Clearfield and lived together as man and wife until February 1 when it was discovered by the libellant, Mr Baughman, that his wife had been lawfully joined in marriage with John Cornell who was before the time of the wife's last marriage, a soldier in France and prior to the ceremony had been reported killed. This notice from the war department, however, proved to be an error and since that time Cornell has been returned to the United States and is now very much alive at Lloydell Cambria county.

Both Baughman and his wife, during their short period of wedded life resided at Tyrone but at the present time the exact location of Mrs Baughman is unknown. She was married to Cornell about four years ago.

Pasengers on the Tyrone branch of the Pennsy may look for more comforts in and about those musty old ill-smelling wooden passenger coaches, Supt. Johnson is inflicting upon us in his regard for the safety of the life and limb of the average New York traveler.

The wily superintendent has evolved a new scheme to tide things over It is said he has started a school in ground and lofty carpentering and joining, for the purpose of equipping his conductors to make necessary repairs at the many times needed during each trip.

On account of the proficiency already shown and by reason of his ancestral qualifications already mentioned, Conductor Farrell was selceted for the first student in the new school He has been given four days absence from his regular run this week and when he returns to duty Saturo next will be well qualified to hit the nail on the head with either hand.

Meanwhile the nondescript old rolling stock creak jerkily over the mountains. But their passenger traffic in New York State must be made safe regardless of Pennsylvanians.

STATE DISPENSARIES AT HOSPITAL

QUICK DRASTIC ACTION NECESSARY

The bombing of the residence of Attorney General Palmer in Washington with the bomb outrages in Pittsburgh last night would make it appear that red-handed Anarchy has begun its campaign to intimidate American authorities and destroy American institutions. This outbreak has long been threatened and is evidently a follow up of the mail bombs attempt.

These cowardly attacks demonstrate that the peril of Bolshevism is menacing right here in free America and require the most drastic action be taken to stamp out this criminal and unlimited authority. Every principal taken into custody, every red-mouthed agitator should be summarily dealt with in such a manner that these rattle-brained fools who seem to think American liberty means license to destroy lives, may find this country entirely too hot for their kind of health.

AMERICAN NAVY ALWAYS FIRST

The American navy has just reason to be proud over the trip accomplished by Commander A. C. Reed and his now famous flying boat in flying across the Atlantic. The perfection of the trip was planned with infinite care and its success is an added tribute to Yankee brains, skill and courage. Well deserved and fitting that the nation which was first to fly should be the first to surmount the hitherto believed to be impossible flight across the broad Atlantic.

The most marked and impressive fact proved by the NC-4 is that airplanes can travel great distances at an average speed of [illegible] miles an hour. Fighting planes have flown nearly [illegible] still, it is an achievement in travel to have gone [illegible] in two days nine and a quarter hours. An actual [illegible] of 2,476 miles was negotiated at a speed that would carry a traveler across this continent in one day.

The seaplanes have demonstrated what must be insisted upon as paramount; that they could descend on the water in safety at sea without sacrifice of life. The Navy department has given no chance of disaster to personnel. The world—[illegible] a wide sweep, and that promptly apologized for and withdrawn—has approved.

That the ocean crossing will be made by airplane in a single flight is now confidently expected as any future event can be. That it will be made by dirigible balloon is as certain. It will not be one now if both feats shall be accomplished within the present season. There is much still to do and to learn before the seaplanes can make their stated flights with passengers and [illegible] NC-4 settled to her anchorage in Plymouth harbor the opening chapter of air history was written to the glorious end.

MODERN STUCCO STYLE OF HOME

Attractive Exterior With Unique Interior Arrangement.

SUITABLE FOR SMALL FAMILY

Design Calls for Six Rooms, but They Are What Might Be Termed "Regular" Rooms—Good Time to Build.

Mr. William A. Radford will answer questions and give advice FREE OF COST on all subjects pertaining to the subject of building, for the readers of this paper. On account of his wide experience as Editor, Author and Manufacturer, he is, without doubt, the highest authority on all these subjects. Address all inquiries to William A. Radford, No. 1827 Prairie avenue, Chicago, Ill., and only enclose three-cent stamp for reply.

Some one had advanced the argument that if every family in the country willed it, there would be few that did not live in their own homes. With few exceptions, tenants pay more in rent than it would cost them to buy the places in which they live. The owner of rented property must get as large a return on his investment as the same money would earn in interest, plus a profit to pay him for his labor and the cost of caring for the property. This expense is borne by the person who rents the property.

This line of reasoning is logical, but the one thing that deters most people from buying or building a home is a lack of desire to assume the responsibility of paying for it. When it is considered that a house may be purchased by paying down a small portion of the cost and the balance as rent, there is not so much responsibility as most people believe.

Everywhere in the country now there is a shortage of available homes. In almost every community this condition prevails and those who are paying rent are finding that the demand is causing the property owners to charge more and more for the houses they own. Thus, whether they will it or not, many people have been driven by necessity into building homes for themselves, while others are considering doing so.

Selecting a design for a house is undoubtedly the most important istep in securing a home. Care should be exercised in picking the room arrangement, the materials of which the house is constructed and the design for the exterior. The number and arrangement of the rooms is influenced by the needs of the family and individual ideas of what a home should be. Selecting materials, however, is a matter that should be carefully weighed. Cheap materials for a home are more costly than good materials, for the simple reason that there will be a constant outlay for repairs if poor stuff is used. The exterior appearance, like the room arrangement, is a matter of taste.

For the person who likes stucco, or plaster exteriors, the house shown in the accompanying illustration will be favored. Here is a modern city style house that is unusually attractive. While the house itself is rectangular in shape, the dimensions being 24 by 30 feet 6 inches, the broad porch gives it a fine appearance. The porch is 15 by 6 feet, but the overhanging roof makes it appear much larger.

The design for this house calls for only six rooms, but they are what might be termed "regular" rooms. The living room extends the full breadth of the house, being 23 by 13 feet. The entrance is in the center, while at one end are the stairs leading to the second floor. The fireplace is built into the interior wall and has a right angle seat on one side. The dining room is reached through glazed doors at the right of the fire place. This is 12 by 16 feet, the buffet and two wall cases being built into one end. The kitchen, occupying the other corner of the building is also large, 10 feet 6 inches, by 12 feet 6 inches. The work table is underneath the double windows on the side, while there are cases on either side of it. The rear porch is of the same width as the kitchen and a place is provided for icing the ice box without entering the kitchen.

The second floor plan is similar to the first. The front bedroom is of the same size as the living room, extending the width of the house. Adjoining it, at the end of a central hall, is the bath room, while there are two other bedrooms, one on each of the two rear corners. Closets are placed in each of these rooms.

The basement extends under the whole of the house. Here rooms may be built to keep the heating plant separate from the other parts of the basement, which always is a good plan as it keeps the heat from the family food storage room.

This is an exceptionally fine design for a house of this kind and size and those who build according to it will have homes to be proud of.

There is every reason why those who have been considering building a home should do so now. The government is urging that all building be started at once so as to give the returning soldiers employment. Converting the industries that were transformed into munitions factories during the war into their peace time state also has thrown many persons temporarily out of employment and building is looked to to keep these workers busy.

When it is considered that more than 80 per cent of the cost of a home is labor, it can readily be understood why building cannot be done now so cheaply as a few years ago. Nature furnishes the materials that go into a building, while labor fashions them into the required shape and condition. Just so long as the present wage level is maintained, so will the cost of building materials stay up. At that they are only 37 per cent more now than in 1913, when they reached a low level.

There is one thing that every person who intends building should do if possible. That is to consult an architect. These men are trained by education and experience to get the most for the money spent in building. The small fee the architect charges is saved many times over in practically every building, because the architect knows how it should be erected. Regarding materials, the lumber dealer is a good man to consult.

PROCLAMATION OF THE BURGESS

Clearfield people generally seem to lose sight of the fact, that the Boro Ordinances forbid the throwing of ashes, lawn clippings and rubbish of any kind upon the streets and alleys of the borough, and in accordance with this lapse, the street employes are given a lot of additional work, while the appearance of the town suffers greatly therefrom.

Hereafter in every case reported to the Burgess, where citizens have thrown ashes, lawn clippings, sweepings or other rubbish on public streets or alleys of the borough, prosecution will be brought and the ffender made to pay the penalty prescribed by the Ordinances.

The Highway Department is making an effort to put the dirt streets in proper shape, and this rubbish not only looks unsightly, but being loose washes into the inlets and clogs same with the first dash of rain, thereby causing overflow and damage to property.

Citizens generally will please obey this proclamation and thus avoid the unpleasantness of an arrest for violation of the ordinances.

ANNOUNCES FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

The announcement of James F. Dunn, of DuBois, for the Democratic nomination for the office of County Commissioner, will be found in this issue of The Progress. Mr. Dunn has long been a faithful party worker.

There is an old joke that the three best ways to spread news rapidly is by telegraph, telephone and telling a woman, but the war has shown that women can keep secrets even better than men. Perhaps the American woman who had in her possession the most vital secrets was Miss O'Neill of the British and Allied Transport Service at New York. She knew in advance the dates of sailing of every transport, the number of men on board, and what route the transports would follow. That information given to German agents in America might have prolonged the war for another year or so, but needless to say it never got past Miss O'Neill.

Says We Become Cranks On Hot Water Drinking

Hopes Every Man and Woman Adopts This Splendid Morning Habit.

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice inhide-bath ing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty, muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy healthy, rosy-checked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the a hes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their ter pound of limestone phosphate will turn at constipation, bilious attacks, not cost much at the drug store, but acid stomach nervous days and sleepless nights, have become real cranks is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone about the morning inside-bath. A quar ing effect upon the system.

The Artist's Voice and its EDISON RE-CREATION are one!

"WHAT a privilege to be a close friend of a Grand Opera star," you've often thought. "To be able to hear that magnificent voice frequently, without the bother and formality of attending the opera."

Think again. If you spent much time in a great singer's studio, what would you hear? Hour after hour of endless vocalizing; monotonous repetition of scales and arpeggios, torturing efforts to increase the voice's compass.

No. For genuine enjoyment of a singer's voice, you must own

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

With this wonderful instrument you hear the singer at his best. Would an artist release a RE-CREATION, permanent and irrevocable measure of his talent, unless he felt certain that it represented his highest moments? He may have an "off" night at the opera but on the New Edison, the singer gives his all. You hear his voice RE-CREATED in all its fire and splendor; RE-CREATED with such fidelity that no human ear can distinguish the living voice from the instrument's rendition. More than thirty great stars of both sexes have stood beside the New Edison in public tone tests; sung in direct comparison with the instrument, then challenged their listeners to state when it was the artist they heard and when the instrument. Not one person has ever been able to detect a shade of difference between the singer's voice and the instrument.

Come in to-morrow and hear a RE-CREATION of your favorite singer's voice.

The almost 50 returned soldiers from the World War, who took part in the Parade Memorial Day, deserve considerable praise for the manner of their fine marching and excellent deportment throughout the entire march It was easy to see that they were a body of young men well-trained.

The address delivered by Rev. Father Lynch, Memorial Day, before an audience of more than three hundred people, was a masterpiece within itself and at different points as he went along was roundly applauded. In fact it was one of the most eloquent and persuasive Memorial addresses ever delivered in the town, and was chuck full of American patriotism, looking at his talk from any standpoint whatever.

To say that the three patrols of Boy Scouts deserve considerable commendation for the success of Memorial Day ceremonies is not putting it too strong. They arose at 5:15 a. m. and raised the large flag at the High School building at regulation half mast. At noontime they raised the flag at full height. From that time on the scouts were as busy as bees, assisting in arranging small details for the afternoon. They certainly do deserve a lot of credit for their energy in making the day a complete success.

The groom was dressed in his soldiers uniform and the bride was very tastefully attired in pink.

A number of children and young people who were at the church preparing for Children's Day, formed the rice brigade, and gave the newlyweds a storm of that famous article as they were entering their automobile to go on their way.

We wish them well.

Meat Injurious To The Kidneys

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

We are a nation of meat-eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the verwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stining pains in the back or the urine is cloudy full of sediment or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad alts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon uice, combined with lithia, and has been used to stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.
